

Valentines greetings to the ladies...

And a special Valentine for the guys. We didn't forget about you!

New on evanovich.com for February 14

- Cast Connie on the Facebook page for Janet.

The latest news from February 1 - 14

- TriStar (now Columbia) has signed Katherine Heigl to play the part of Stephanie Plum in the movie of One For the Money. We are not involved in the casting process, but if we hear of any other actors being signed on, we will post the news ASAP. There is no word yet on when the movie might go into actual production.

- It wouldn't be a Barnaby and Hooker adventure without Beans the St. Bernard. Here's a sneak peek of the big guy from the upcoming graphic novel, Troublemaker, tentatively scheduled for release on July 20.
- The most e-mailed question of the week...

Q: Will Stephanie Plum be in the new Diesel series?

A: No. Only one of the Plum regulars will be joining Diesel in his new series (in bookstores sometime in September) -- Carl the monkey.

The quotes from the last few weeks

Sometimes you get up in the morning and you know it's going to be one of those days. No toothpaste left in the tube, no toilet paper on the cardboard roll, hot water cuts out halfway through your shower, and someone's left a monkey on your doorstep.

-- Plum Spooky

"All I gotta do is enter the contest as one of them chefs. I bet I could even win."

"You can't cook."

"That's true so far, but that could change. I'm real good at eatin'. I got a highly developed palate."

-- Finger Lickin' Fifteen

The next E-News will be on March 1.

Joe, Ranger and Grandma Mazur